

BULLDOG ULTRA BCB 300 – PROFILE OF CYCLISTS

Srinath Rajam

First person to sign up for this event, Srinath is an avid endurance cyclist from Chennai whose passion for the sport knows no bounds. The excitement in him reflected from the very first moment we spoke about the event and he sure will prove helpful to the younger riders...Trek Madone is what he rides!

Aman Gopal

17 yrs and with multiple ultra-endurance rides accomplished, he sure is a talent who is raring to go places quite literally at that! Likes to play Squash and cross-trains by running and practices yoga. Wilier Evasion is what he rides.

Manjula Sridhar

One of the few women participants, you are sure to meet her at any of the weekend race events be it cycling or running. She is currently training for the Singapore Half IronMan, 2011 and we wish her all the best..! Will be riding her Trek 1.2 (TEAM SPECTRUM)

Anita Bora

The first woman participant to register (TEAM CLEATED WARRIORS)

Shreyas Rao

Ever since he exploded on to the cycling scene in Bangalore with his Fuji Cyclocross, he has gone from strength to strength. Has done numerous endurance rides, all varying in intensity. Besides cycling, he likes running and swimming..(TEAM BOTS)

Dipankar Paul

Colnago Primavera is his first love! If any body has done the most miles in the least possible time, it is THIS GUY..! When it is Ultra- Endurance rides- he is the reference standard and most of all an inspiration to countless others who go through his ride reports with utter amazement..! ..(TEAM BOTS)

Vivek Radhakrishna

Part of the Kynkyny Racing Team, and having a rich and varied background of cycling & racing in various parts of the world; is definitely one of the wittiest participants this year..! Will be riding a Giant (TEAM KYNKYN)

Sudhir Palliyil and R.Venkatachalam - (TEAM CLEATED WARRIORS)
